THE FLOR

In this world we organise the competition like miss world and miss universe in that competition we see many beautiful girls that show their beauty and get tag of most beautiful women in the world, but the real question is are they really that beautiful? Or there is someone who can eat them all in her breakfast and fart them at night while sleeping, do we have that type of hidden gems in our universe? So the answer is yes, there is someone exist , her beauty is like falling stars that brights whole world with their beauty, her brown eyes are like that deep ocean that have soo many deep emotions In them and if you see at them you will just drown in them actually you will wish that this eyes just come and drown you in them, Her hairs are like that beautiful waves that you will wish to get stuck in them forever and never want to get free from their trap of sweetness, her nose are like that cute thing that you want to stare years and years and her cheeks jaja her cheeks are those unique thing that god must had took years to craft her cheeks are that cute and beautiful it can fail all the softness of cotton , her cheeks that can hold the whole beauty of this universe, her entire face and body is crafted with some magic that can fail all goddess infront of her, she is flor, my flori, my pochi bomb.

Florencia Agustina barcala she is one of the most beautiful women that I have seen in my entire life, whenever I see her I feel like to love her a lot, she looks like some kind of beautiful ancient goddess took birth in this earth , her maturity her care her love everything is that unique that you cannot measure, her behaviour her feelings her everything is that real that you will get different emotions in your whole soul, people say the most beautiful species in this world in elfs, and my floriii is goddess of elfs, if elfs see her they will all bow infront of her beauty and start to worship her , sometimes people can notice that flor is kinda stupid but here the most intresting part comes , she is very intelligent person, my floriii is emotionally mature she knows how to handle situation, if situation get worse my floriii has that maturity that she can handle the situation and she is that intelligent if you tell her something about biology or human organ she can be whole encyclopedia for that, she has soo knowledge about her things.

But that's just basic part about flor the real part here comes, she changed one person completely , the person who lost faith in love, the person who forget the skill to trust someone the person whos heart is started becoming like a rock , flor grew the most beautiful flowers of her love in that rock, she thaught that person that there is still true love exists in this world , still there are people who deserves his trust and she made that person totally obsessed with her, and that person is PRADYOT, I can write whole 10 pages about my floriii but I have to complete this pdf before my pochi bomb wake up jaja.

THE PRADYOT

In this world there are some people who loves like a 70s 80s lovers, there are still people who don't believe in casual love those people believes in real love, true bond, but if they get somekind of hit in their life then they stop trusting people they create one protective shield around them they always tell themselves that the true love, true bond don't exist in current date so they create shield around them some people think this guys are soo arrogant and rude but trust me this type of people are most soft hearted people they could ever meet, this people always deeply wish that someone will come someday and break their shield and again teach them how to love, and among that people there is pradyot too (means me).

Pradyot stopped believing love but then flor came in his life and after that everything changed, I don't want to talk about what happened after they meet and all because it will take so much time I will just come to the point, after flor came everything changed in his heart, now his destiny his final goal his life his soul his heart his world everything is just flor, his little florii, pradyot feels like to take care of his florii forever , take care of that cute little pochi and maintain that beautiful smile on her face forever, if flori feels low or sad it always crush pradyots heart a lot, he don't know how to show his love through words and to show his love with actions there is only one enemy and that's distance, pradyot is someone who is totally obsessed with flor and want to make her most happiest girl in this whole world, pradyot want to give her that much love that no one gave to their partner yet because flor is not just partner for pradyot she is his baby, she is his world, she is that beautiful goddess of love that pradyot want to worship forever, she is his florii, his partner his wife.

Sometimes he wonders there must be somekind of ability that he can show to flor her place in his heart, everytime flor tell him that "dumbass, know your place" and yeah he just want to tell her I only want place in you heart mi amor always forever, that place that only belongs to me only me no one and no situation can move me from my place , flor is that whole multiverse in pradyots eyes that holds different galaxys and stars , it has all emotions all feelings, all beauty and happiness and care,

If I start to right flori's place in pradyots heart it will take so many pages but I said before I want to complete it before you wake up putita (my putita). But yeah there is something that is common for everyone but in these world there is one community they can litteraly die for that one word and that's PROMISE.

And amor I just want to show tell you something that I feel

THE PROMISE

The promise is that concept that could be just word for some people but there is one community if they give any word or promise they can die to complete their word and promise, and if they give promise of love to someone then no matter even god of death comes to stop them to complete their promise they will fight with that god of death to for their love and that community is Rajput community, and pradyot (the Rajput) already gave his promise to love florii until she loves him now no one can stop him , yeah the promise is to love her until she loves him but I know the reality, if someday his florii stops to love him and get someone another person that's fixed that pradyot will leave without any argument but he will never stop loving his florii because his soul and heart already accepted her, our community is royal and loyal with blood, our blood is that power that can burn this whole world but can save this world too, and loyalty is the something that's our character and we care about our character our values more than anything.

This is not just promise this is that bond that created at 22 jan 2026 , the universal eternal bond, the connection is so strong that we both can predict each others mood in just some seconds, the connection is so strong that I want to love florii so much, the connection is so strong that makes me so weak in front of my florii and that why I know and I get it we are soulmates someone who made for each other, someone who is meant to be each others partners from the start of this universe, and this promise is unbreakable, and in this bond of promise flor also comes because this is one responsibility if we do something that we fear or feel uncomfortable to share with our partner is also part of cheating and I don't want that type of things in our relationship , this is one bond and we should respect it if we do something it will be insult of this beautiful bond but I know my florii is best that's why I trust my florii more than anything.

LAST MESSAGE

Babe I love you soo much, I cant explain how much I love you with some few words but in future you will get it, you are the most precious thing in my life mi vida, I know sometimes we both behave like a stupid person and things get worse between us but trust me babe the love and the connection between us is so strong that no one can break it, you must trust papi, because for papi his pochi bomb is most beautiful and precious thing that he want to take care and love a lot, baby my mood depends on your mood whenever you feel sad or low I feel so bad mi amor, I want to make you most happiest women in this whole world mi vida, I know sometimes I make mistakes too but baby I am still learning to love you and that's fact that we cant change that due to long distance we will get so many misunderstandings too in future also we must get ready for it but baby misunderstandings could never make our love less for each others, I love you a lot pochi bomb I want to stay with you forever even after death, we are not two different person we are one , one soul , one heart we are one baby and I love you soo much, my days and nights without you feels so empty baby, I don't know how to explain my love for you in words but I could only say TE AMO TANTOOO MUCHO MASS MI VIDAA a lot baby, cant wait to put this password "Pochi611" not just in laptop and mobile but in everywhere.

And at the end I just want to tell you one thing and its from the deepest side of my heart
